

CANOPY GANADERO 2024

THE STORY Enologists Alfonso Chacón, Belarmino Fernández began Canopy in 2003. Belén Hita was added in 2021. This is the heart of Canopy. Located in the Sierra de Gredos area of Mérida with several plots in the El Real de San Vicente between the Tajo and Tietar valleys. Old vine Garnacha on Granite soils produces sublime wines of power and finesse. Foudres and large barrels are the main vessels for aging.

Varietals-100% Garnacha
Appellation-Mérida
Sub-Region-Sierra de Gredos
Site-El Real de San Vicente
Vine Age-47
Acres-27
Soil-Granite/Sand
Elevation-2,700'
Yield/Acre-2.4
Production-12,000 bottles
Aging-3M 500 Liter French.

WINEMAKING/PRODUCTION A pre-fermentation maceration is carried out at a controlled temperature, with subsequent alcoholic fermentation taking place. Once completed, malolactic fermentation in 500-liter barrels occurs. Three months in French oak 500 liters 2nd and 3rd use.

TASTING NOTES In terms of color, burgundy red with medium intensity, clear and bright, not opaque but a fine hue. On the nose, notes of fruits (blueberries), flowers and earth, undergrowth, fresh aromatic herbs give the wine a surprising nose reminiscent of the forest. richness.and verve.